A Word to the Erring.

If you have led a sinful life, and are now ashamed and weary of it,

if you arise and go to God, he will receive you graciously and will abundantly pardon. All his assurance are of the same affecting tenor. "He is long suffering, not willing that any should perish." "As

I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his way and live. Turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways." And here he is represented as the mortal Father, whose pity survives

the longest prostration, and whose love is such that when the prodigal

at last returns he presses him to his bosom. Such is the God and Father of our Lord Jesus; and if you are wise, you will let no bold suspicion or subtle casuistry cheat

you out of the strong consolation.

You cannot err in doing as he directs. Be assured that God is as kindly disposed as in the parable of the prodigal son he is represented to be. The invitations, promises, which he has given us in the gospel, mean the utmost of what they express, and God is earnestly desirous that sinners should return unto him, and as much pleased when they actually return, as the strongest language of the gospel declares.

James Hamilton, D. D.

Death by jumping from a train of Cars.

On Sunday evening, the 19th

inst., a very sad accident occurred at Hartsville Station, in this county.

The facts, as they came to us, are as follows: The freight train having stopped about a mile north of the Station, Howell B. Johnson and

Joseph Turner, being curious to have a "ride," got on, thinking the train would stop at the Station; but when it got there, instead of halting, it went on at a rapid rate.

The boys, who must have been impugnant of the danger in such a leap, jumped from the train while it was running. Johnson was killed almost instantly, and it is thought that his neck was broken.

While Turner's fall was considerably

brutal, he is recovering. —Summitville Free

Rev. Jas. C. Armstrong.

One who heard this minister last

Sabbath in Huntsville, writes thus:

He delivered for us on Sunday evening a fine sermon, metaphysical, psychical, but most deeply religious. It made one feel how glorious it is to be a Christian. I think a sermon is a success when it is the impression left on the mind. I looked at that saintly face and thought how he had been buffeted

on the waves of time. How his soul

had been sublimated by suffering and no earthly retribution. —Free

"Save him, save him!" He cannot swim! The mother's eyes were wild,

her hands clasped, and her lips quivering. She was about a little scholar, bound from Astoria to St. Louis, and was one of the West Indians. There were several besides the district woman, several passengers,

among them Herbert Wentworth,

a fine-looking, middle-aged man, of about thirty years of age, who was then at Astoria, and was bound from Astoria to St. Louis.

SEA DREAMS.

The waves are glad in breeze and sun.

The rocks are fringed with foam;

I walked once more a haunted shore,

A stranger yet at home—

A land of dreams I found

Is this the wind, the soft sea-wind?

That stirred thy locks of brown?

Are these the rocks whose mosses knew

The trail of thy soft foot?

Where boy and girl are loved?

I see the gray fort's broken walls

The lonely that rose long ago

And, out at sea, the floating sails

We saw so long ago—

Rosied in morning glow.

The freshness of the early time

On every breeze is blown;

As glad the sea, as blue the sky—

The change is ours alone.

The saddest is my own!

A stranger now, a world-wide man

Is he who bears my name;

But thou, my thoughts, whose moral life

Immortal youth became,

Art evermore the same!

Thou art not here, thou art not there,

Thy place I can not see;

I only know that thou art

The blessed angel here,

And heaven's glad light for thee.

Forgive me, if the evil years

Have left on me their sign;

Wash out, O soul so beautiful,

The many stains of mine

In tears of love divine!

Oh, turn to me that dearest face

Of all thy sea-born town;

The wedded roses of thy lips,

Thy loose-hair rippling down

In waves of golden brown!

Look forth once more through space and time

And let thy sweet shade fall

In tenderest grace of soul and form

On memory's freshest wall

A shadow, yet so all!

Draw near, my nest, forever dear!

Where'er I rest, or roam;

Or in the crowded city streets,

Or by the blown sea foam.

The thought of thee is home!

RESOLUTIONS OF THE DEMOCRATIC AND CONSERVATIVE PARTY OF ALABAMA.

The State Convention, which adjourned Thursday night, adopted the following resolutions:

1. That the Democratic and Conservative Party of Alabama in Convention assembled do hereby resolve and declare:

2. That the rights of all classes of men under the Constitution and laws of the land must be respected and preserved inviolate. But we deny that Congress has constitutionally enacted laws to force two races into social equality.

3. That the so-called Civil Rights bill, recently passed by the Federal Senate, and now pending in the House, is a flagrant and dangerous violation of the ancient conservative principles of the Constitution, and that it is a palpable violation of the Federal Constitution, and presents an issue of vital moment to the American people, and calls upon them to decide at the ballot-box whether they will or will not be coerced to the absolute and complete equality of the races.

4. That the rights of all classes of men under the Constitution and laws of the land must be respected and preserved inviolate. But we deny that Congress has constitutionally enacted laws to force two races into social equality.

5. That the rights of all classes of men under the Constitution and laws of the land must be respected and preserved inviolate. But we deny that Congress has constitutionally enacted laws to force two races into social equality.

THE RADICAL CONVENTION.

Last Saturday the first intimation that the people of Jacksonville had that they were to be honored (?) by the holding of a county convention of the great (?) and intelligent (?) Republican party of Calhoun in their midst, was the arrival of a corporal's guard of solemn looking old darkeys from the country on plover mules, and the gathering of three or four mean whites at the old shop on Main street, where the faithful usually congregated when any party measures on foot.

So quietly and so secretly did they manage to call their convention that we were not aware it was in session until it was about over and the corporal's guard of solemn looking old darkeys were leaving town, else we would have had a reporter on the ground to catch the wise (?) sayings of the plain and colored statesmen who composed the august and important body, for the amusement of our readers.

For what we have learned concerning it we are indebted to a subtle participant who was thoroughly disgusted with the whole thing. Gen. Burke was chosen chairman and a saddle colored negro schoolmaster named Brown was chosen Secretary. After a few "hoil" remarks from the chairman which were hailed with tumultuous applause by the African Statesmen present, two delegates were selected to go to Montgomery and attend the black and tan State Convention to be held there on the 20th inst., viz: J. W. Burke (white) and Isaac Frank (white). Two highly colored statesmen were chosen as alternates, named respectively Brown and Vansant, but they will hardly get into the convention if they go, since Burke and Frank will very likely be on hand. White colored Black in that deal certainly. Brander DeArman it is understood wanted to be a delegate in order to be in position to do something for his friend Alex White, but the colored population could not see it, to the light of this event we are afraid that Brander DeArman has been too busy in planning the Republican party to any particular line of action including the support of candidates in the election, since it is more than evident that he does not carry that organization (small as it is) in his breeches pocket. Brander, who wants to be nominated for Congressman at large has got the inside track of Alex White so far as the Calhoun delegation is concerned, as Gen. Burke is his friend and Frank has some old scores to pay off with the noble Alex. It is said that the saddle colored Secretary, named Brown, was put on the track for the legislature, but instructed not to run unless some unprincipled Democrat should suffer the Radicals to persuade him to become an independent candidate, in which event he (Brown) must do his level best to come between the two and represent (?) the good people of Calhoun in the next legislature. Another report has it that the colored brother Vansant is the man chosen to execute this elegant little bit of strategy. One white kinned Radical has given this a quasi denial, but it is so much in keeping with Radical practice heretofore that it is hard to disbelieve it. The running of Henry Hoke in the last election proves them capable of it. We could not ascertain whether or not any candidates were put out for county offices. The resolution printed in another place, which would lead to the inference that such was not the case; the plan being to use the Radical minority in the county as a standing bid for independent candidates and the consequent disorganization of the Democratic party. Whether or not the resolution was put to throw Democrats off their guard and encourage independents, while in reality the negro party have secret nominees to take advantage of any possible division in the Democratic ranks, is an open question. We incline to the opinion that it is a snare and a delusion. The following is the resolution referred to. It is the only part of the proceedings that we have been requested to publish:

Resolved, That the Republicans of Calhoun County will not nominate any candidates of their own to be voted for at the coming election for county offices, but will support such persons for offices as may be before the people and whose election will conduce to the prosperity of the county and the welfare of their fellow citizens regardless of political standing, and that the Jacksonville Republican be requested to publish this resolution.

J. W. BURKE,
Chairman.

Another resolution was adopted declaring themselves to be the friends of peace, law and order; asking that toleration their practice, and deprecating the introduction of any issue into the campaign calculated to create violence and disorder, which, when hailed down, simply means that white men should practice the broadest charity towards the members of that party that is moving heaven and earth to degrade them to the social level with the negro.

The third resolution thanks General Burke for "his manly and consistent defense of Republican principles on all occasions," and expresses "confidence in his judgment, ability and fidelity to those principles," which are entitled to the highest reward in the gift of the Repub-

THE TROUBLES IN FAYETTE COUNTY, TENNESSEE.

Since election day, there have been four or five times as many rumors about a bloody collision at Somerville, the county seat of Fayette County. Two men had been killed; fourteen had been killed; the town had been burned by a mob; and the county was in a state of anarchy. The following is the information from the principal sources:

Last Thursday evening, a party of about twenty men, armed with revolvers and pistols, gathered at the residence of Mr. H. H. Hoke, a prominent citizen of the county. They were all white men, and they were all armed with revolvers and pistols. They were all white men, and they were all armed with revolvers and pistols.

BLACK DIAMONDS.

Every white man should read the following extract from the speeches made by the "colored people of Alabama, in Convention assembled."—The resolutions on each of the debates sprung up, are printed in another column. As originally introduced the series of resolutions embraced two constraining the Civil Rights Bill and declaring against mixed schools. A motion was made to strike these resolutions out, which finally prevailed. Pending action upon it, however, the following sentiments were uttered by the able orators in their speeches pro civil war.

WALKER, of Dallas, a member of the Legislature, said that this was a Civil Rights Convention, and that a declaration against sending the colored boys to the State University at Tusculooosa, and privileges to which they were entitled.

Colored children should have access to all schools. He regretted that the colored people of Alabama were unable to do as they had done in Mississippi,

Louisiana and South Carolina.

He took the ground that any declaration against mixed schools was equivocal

to instruction to Congress to provide for separate schools and when that was done it would soon follow there would be white schools. He was in favor of teaching the white and black children together in the same school, in order that the idea of inferiority of the latter would be done away with. Unless they were put together, there would be no equality of privileges and accommodations. If the two races are equal, as the Civil Rights bill declares, why should

there be any attempt made to keep up these differences? He asked if any colored man was injured because the National Government had colored boys at National Military and Naval Academy.

Curtis, of Perry, a Senator, asked

Walker if any delegate advocated separate schools?

Walker in reply said he held them to the resolution and if the resolutions did not say that they said nothing. The colored people were denied admission to the Agricultural College at Auburn, the State University at Tusculooosa, and a hundred other places. The colored people can lose nothing by demanding all their rights. Whenever they went on an equality platform they won, but when they took a milk and water course, as they did in 1870, they were defeated.

He said that the colored people were insulted and scorned by the white people. He said that the colored people were not equal to the white people.

A JUDGE DISGRACES HIMSELF.

The city was wild with indignation last night, at the reported conduct of Richard Busted, United States District Judge, in forcing a crowd of negroes into the ladies' car on a train of the Western Railroad which left Selma yesterday evening. We have the following version of it from an undoubted source:

After the train left Selma, Conductor

Polk went through the usual collection of fares, when he discovered a negro seated in the ladies' car and in close proximity to Judge Busted. Besides these persons there were three ladies in the car, and a gentleman, whose name we did not learn, who had taken passage for Benton, two white delegates from Mobile to the Jere Harrison Convention, and J. A.

Fardon, reporter of the Journal. The conductor approached the negro and told him that he was in the wrong car and that he must go into the next. This the negro refused to do. The conductor then gathered the negro by the arm and pulled him from the seat. About that time the gentleman bound for Benton approached the conductor and informed him that the negro had been very insul-

tive to him

GRANGE PICNIC.

It was our pleasure as well as privilege to attend the picnic given by the grangers of the upper portion of this county and the lower portion of Cherokee, at Losahatchie in the latter county.

The speakers of the day were Messrs. Jno. Pratt, and Jno. Lawrence of Cherokee and Messrs. James Crook and M. J. Turnley of Calhoun. The two first mentioned gentlemen failed to reach the ground. The latter named gentlemen were present and both spoke. About 11 o'clock the grangers present from the different granges, cloth in their regalia, filed into line, and keeping step to the inspiring music furnished by the Centre silver cornet band, filed into the spacious arbor on the grounds, where together with the vast crowd of ladies and gentlemen present they listened for over an hour to a most eloquent, logical and convincing speech from Capt. James Crook. His speech, which was well received, being over, dinner was announced and the crowd broke into parties around the numerous baskets filled with good things set out by the good housewives of the Valley. After an hour spent in social converse over the hospitable dinner spread by that most hospitable people in the State, the crowd again repaired to the stand to listen to the speech of Judge Turnley. His speech was entirely practical, abounding in the greatest good sense and was well received. At the close of his address he paid a high and merited compliment to the fair ladies present, and amid the greatest good humor the people dispersed to their several homes. In addition to the music already mentioned, an elegant string band was on the ground, which now and then regaled the ear with music throughout the day.

More than a thousand people were present, young and old, and it was altogether the most pleasant social gathering we have ever attended, not the slightest disturbance occurring to mar the peace and harmony of the day.

John DeArman is just now much interested in the Democratic party and wears the seat of his breeches out at his little post office haranguing Democrats on the subject of independent candidates and so forth.

It strikes us that John has about as much as he is capable of attending to in looking after his niggers.

Nearly all the sawmills in town have gone to the Radical State Convention. The atmosphere is purer.

See advertisement in another column of very favorable terms offered in renting the HOTEL recently occupied by J. L. Whisenand. Such an opportunity will seldom occur to rent a large and well arranged HOTEL at very cheap rates.

Good News to Tax Payers.

The recent August term of the Calhoun County Court for Calhoun County reduced the county tax one half, that is from eight-tenths of one per cent. to four-tenths. This will afford considerable relief to tax payers these hard times, and we suppose the court made accurate calculations that this amount would meet the current county expenses, and also reduce the present debt.

We would respectfully and earnestly call the attention of parents and guardians who have daughters or wards to educate, to the notice of the TUSCALOOSA FEMALE COLLEGE. We feel sure that they can find no better institution for the thorough education of females, anywhere, east, west, north or south, and no Principal of such an institution more competent, diligent and devoted to the duties of his profession than REV. B. F. LARABEE.

The next session will commence 1st of October. By early application to the President scholarships may be purchased on very favorable terms. For more full and perfect information send for Catalogue.

Thos. H. Turnley, Secretary.
Wm. F. Parr, Treasurer.
W. W. Woodward, Librarian.
P. M. Mattox, Ex. Com.
Sam. P. Snow, Ex. Com.

The following resolutions were offered and adopted:

WHEREAS, Our association has just passed its second anniversary, and although we have labored under very unfavorable and discouraging circumstances since our organization, we feel that the continual outpouring of God's grace upon us, we have been supremely blessed, and our spiritual advancement has been progressive, and

WHEREAS, We believe that greater good can be accomplished by giving our whole support to such an organization, and still greater blessings brought upon us by continuing our efforts, therefore be it

Resolved, That we begin with another year, to labor more zealously, to pray more earnestly for the cause of our Master, and the upbuilding of Young Men's Christian Associations in our midst.

Resolved, That we extend to every young and middle-aged man, who are members of any Evangelical church, and who feel that they would do more work for the cause, a cordial, brotherly invitation, to come and join us as active members, and we promise them a field in which they may exemplify their activity.

To every young man who is strictly moral, and feels an interest in us, we say—come and associate yourselves with us—and we will pray to our Heavenly Father to grant his blessings and help us to make such association both pleasant and profitable.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

GEN. Wm. H. Forney and L. W. Grant will address the people of Bear No. 7, at a place to be hereafter designated by handbills, on SATURDAY, the FIFTH day of September.

Association Minutes. We have recently received additional type, paper and other materials suitable for printing minutes in superior style. We will print them as cheap as can be done elsewhere; and therefore hoped that those who have the control of such printing will not send it to a distance, when it can be done so correctly, neatly and cheaply at home.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Aug. 16.

Georgetown, in this State, is the scene of a dangerous contest between two negro factions, led by Rowley and Jones, negro members of the Legislature, each of whom seeks to control the county, in which the negroes have a huge majority. A Rowley meeting on Wednesday was broken up by the Jones faction, and one colored bystander dangerously wounded. Runners were sent out, and armed Jones negroes rushed into the town during the night. Some of them next morning attempted to kill Rowley, and at midnight Thursday there was a heavy firing which was found to be an attack on the house of Jones who was slightly wounded. Some other slight casualties also occurred. On Friday Rowley's house was attacked, and Rowley, to save his life, surrendered to the sheriff and is now in jail. Saturday at noon the excitement was still intense and the town filled with armed negroes. None but Radicals were engaged in the riot, but the white citizens are alarmed lest some careless word or act should cause an attack upon them, which they have no means of meeting.

Texas Grand Prix Concert.

Postponed to October 22, 1874.

The Hon. Jas. T. D. Wilson, Mayor of Houston, and the City Council endorse the enterprise as follows:

Houston, Texas, April 29, 1871. We the undersigned, regard the Texas Distribution, which J. E. Foster proposes to make on the 22d of October next in this city, as calculated to produce improvements, and placing within the reach of many, who otherwise would be unable, a chance to secure a home for them and their families, and having from our acquaintance with him, every confidence in his integrity, we feel justified in saying, that we believe he will carry out his Distribution honestly and fairly, according to his advertised plan.

Signed by the Mayor, the Hon. Jas. T. D. Wilson, and the City Council.

Certain and Safe.

In past years, the proprietors offered a reward of $10,000 for a more certain and safe remedy, for dysentery and diarrhea than the celebrated Mississippi Diarrhoea Cordial. It contains nothing harmful to the system, and never fails to cure.

READ THE TESTIMONY.

KENNEY, DUNKLIN CO., Mo., Oct. 22d, 1870.

Messrs. Mansfield & Hyges, Memphis Tenn. Dear Sirs:—I desire to add my testimony as to the efficacy of your Mississippi Diarrhoea Cordial, which I find from personal experience to be the greatest remedy for bowel affections that has ever come under my observation.

For two weeks steadily, I had been afflicted with what is called bloody flux, the most severe of which is a terror to every remedy that my friends could suggest, or my own experience recall, was tried without effect, and I grew steadily worse.

Although utterly unable to travel, I found myself obliged by business to go to Memphis. I must confess myself strongly prejudiced against all kinds of patent medicines, but at the urgent solicitation of a friend while in your city, I purchased a bottle of your Mississippi Diarrhoea Cordial, and upon trial found to my delight, that I had exactly hit the remedy for my case.

The effect was a perfect cure. I need say no more. Very truly yours,

W. D. DAVIS, Sheriff of Dunklin Co., Mo.

An Unwholesome Season.

The closing days of winter and the early days of spring are very trying to the feeble and sensitive, and withal, affect unpleasantly even the more robust and vigorous. Nothing can be more ungenial to the nerves or more depressing to the spirits than damp, chilling winds, fog and cold rains, and of such unfavorable effects, the prevalence of such a season, as the present, is a superabundance at this season. Common prudence suggests, therefore, the propriety of fortifying the system against these insidious enemies of health and comfort, and the experience of more than a quarter of a century points to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as the all-sufficient sanitary safeguard under such untoward conditions. An element of vital strength and energy is what is required to meet and overcome the unhealthy elements now present in the atmosphere. This increase of vital power, so necessary to meet the extraordinary drafts which the inclement season makes upon the system and the constitution, can be readily acquired by taking from two to three doses of Hostetter's Bitter during the winter and spring months. The nature of this celebrated restorative is well known to the public. It is composed of an absolutely pure diffusive stimulant, combined with the extract and juice of the most effective tonic, alternative, anti-bilious and laxative roots and herbs known to medical science. To the combination of these excellent ingredients, in proportions suitable to the exigencies of enfeebled, languid and diseased systems, the great tonic alternative owes its efficacy as a preventive and curative agent. As the season commences now, will prevent all danger of fever and ague, rheumatism, or other ailments arising from cold and damp peculiar to spring months, and also prove a safeguard against the attacks of dyspepsia and liver complaint which so frequently occur at this period of the year.

CHRONIC.

Neglected Diarrhoea, becomes chronic, and is difficult to manage. Nevertheless, there are no names of Dysentery or Diarrhoea, or of any bowel affection, that the Mississippi Diarrhoea Cordial will not cure. A single dose will relieve, and a ordinary course of this medicine has been in use for nearly twenty years, and has always given satisfaction.

Read the evidence.

Henry F. Blumhardt writes, June 18th, 1871, from St. Johns, Florida, and states that he can not but give great praise to the Mississippi Diarrhoea Cordial, for its prompt action in all cases of bowel affliction. Not only has he noticed many ordinary cases of Dysentery checked and permanently relieved by a few doses, but he has seen several old cases of protracted and Chronic Diarrhoea, which promised to prove fatal, completely cured, by the Mississippi Diarrhoea Cordial, and the patients well and hearty.
